

Sunday Jan. 27

Dear Louise,

Sorry I did not get to it to write to you this last week, I intended to write Thursday or Friday as I usually do but ^{several} things prevented it. Pop went to the Jernypow sale which was a wonderful thing something new to these parts and probably will never be again as no one has enough money around here. We have 4 cows some younger ones and calves 10 in all, some money tied up in them. When pop came home the second day he had a man and wife with him from Wilson N.Y. near Niagara Falls I think 20 miles this side of there. Their names was Herbert C. Tenniersen pronounced Tennyson they came in to
